WASHINGTON, March 15.—Only eight out of the 27 Oklahoma postmaster nominations, which the president sent to the senate during the third session of the Sixty-Fifth congress, which adjourned last week, were confirmed, it was learned here today. The only Oklahoma nominations aside from postmastership, that were sent to the senate by President Wilson during the last session were that of R. J. Williams of Durant to be the United States district court judge for the eastern district, and that of John A. Cain of Oklahoma to serve as United States attorney for the western district. Judge Williams was nominated to succeed Judge H. E. Campbell, resigned. His nomination, which was sent to the senate on December 3, 1918, was confirmed on the following January 7. SO-CALLED OLIVE OILS ARE FALSELY LABELED

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Several seizures have been made and a number of prosecutions instituted as a result of a campaign inaugurated by the officials charged with the enforcement of the federal food and drugs act against the interstate shipment of adulterated and misbranded olive oil.

Consumers are advised by the bureau of chemistry, United States department of agriculture, to read carefully the labels of all containers of olive oil, and to make a sample oil to determine whether the manufacturer actually claims that the product is olive oil or merely suggests it by misleading devices. Some of these deceptively labeled products are sold by itinerant peddlers.

Cottonseed oil, corn oil, peanut oil, soy bean oil, and other vegetable oils are wholesome, palatable oils, but they should be bought under their own names at prices much lower than the prices at which olive oil is usually sold.
